

PLENTRY GOING FOR VISITORS TO THE SHOW TODAY

Spelling Bee, Motorcycle Races, Auto Parades and Final Awards in Various Contests on the Program.

L. M. ANDREWS WINNER IN MOTORCYCLE RACE

Several Riders Find Corners Too Sharp and Are Forced Out of the Race—Route to be Roped Off Today.

Fair skies and warm winds greeted the second day of the farmers, merchants and manufacturers' exposition Wednesday and added new life to the week's festivities. The first crowds from the surrounding towns made their appearance, promising that the remaining two days of the exposition will see the bulk of the population of the county poured into the city.

A half racing 1-mile motorcycle race featured the day and drew great crowds along the course. Thursday the same course is to be the scene of another race for 15 miles, this time for two-cylinder machines. Speed of 80 miles an hour is predicted by some of the more daring entries. An afternoon and evening auto parade are to feature the program for the day.

The down town streets and stores were crowded during the day with visitors taking in the hundreds of exhibits while the judges placed the prize winning ribbons there. The work of judging the exhibits was practically concluded with the exception of a few minor displays which will be finished Thursday.

The parades Wednesday afternoon and evening are to be led by the exposition queen, Miss Jane Smith, and her train of attendants. A big motor truck carrying the band will also be one of the features.

Spelling Bee Today.

Thursday morning in the eighth grade building the old fashioned spelling bee will be conducted. Atty. Dan Pyle will act as the dispenser of words. Much entertainment is promised for the spellers from the countryside around. A course in the Kelley business college will be offered as the prize for the winner.

Lloyd M. Andrews of South Bend, number three, won the motorcycle race Wednesday afternoon on an Excelsior machine. His time was 1 minute and 23 seconds for four trips around the circuit, or 141-2 miles.

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the two cylinder race will be held in which a long list of entries have been made, and on Friday the free-for-all race will be held.

These races will cover 18 miles and will take four laps around the same circuit as the race used Wednesday. The course will be roped as accidents are feared.

Several riders were thrown from their machines although no serious injuries were received. Only four out of nine starters finished the race, the others having met with some accident in the race.

Donald Hasford of this city, driving number nine, a Harley-Davidson, came second, making the trip around the course in 22 minutes and 11 seconds. Charles Woolman of South Bend came third on number five, also a Redding-Standard, in 23 minutes and 2 seconds.

Russell Gill ran into the curb at the corner of Colfax and Lafayette st., and was forced to drop out of the race because of a broken pulley. A. S. Henderlong dashed against the same curb and was thrown from his saddle, but pluckily kept in the race although he met a second accident at the Navarre corner and was forced out of the race when his engine refused to operate.

John McGraw and R. E. Annis were forced out because of flat tires and E. A. Grochowski and Rolla Doney were also compelled to stop in the third circuit because of engine and tire trouble.

Two sharp curves, one at the Colfax and Lafayette corner and the other at the Navarre and Lafayette corner, opposed the riders and each time as they dashed around these corners their machines were thrown against the curb and in many cases narrowly missed throwing the rider from his machine.

Starts at High School.

The race began at the high school building on Colfax and proceeded east to Lafayette, then north to Navarre, west to Portage, northwest to Elwood, west to Wilbur, south to LaPorte av., then south to Colfax and back to the school.

The total purse of $50 was divided among three, Andrews getting $25, Hasford $15, and Woolman $10.

The entries for the race Thursday are: A. R. Lee of South Bend, J. Bushnell of Elkhart and H. Hess of Elkhart, G. Hitts of South Bend, on Excelsiors; M. R. Holland, South Bend, and S. Benz, South Bend, on Harley-Davidsons; W. Edgren, South Bend, on a Jefferson; C. Hoskie, South Bend, on a Redding-Standard, and A. S. Henderlong of Crown Point, on an Indian.

Hitts, Hess, Bushnell, Holland, Henderlong and Lee will also make up the free-for-all race Friday. The official timekeeper is John Casimere, assisted by J. D. Weaver. Frank Dolik is starter and Fred Hart is judge.

$200,000 HORSE IS BEATEN

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 2.—August Belmont's three-year-old Tracey, for which he was recently offered $200,000, was defeated here today by Cantiliver in the race for the Jockey Club's stakes for $50,000. Aleppo finished third.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS APPROVES MEASURE

But Six Members Vote Against Hurrying Along the Tariff Bill—Tax on Cotton Futures Not Included.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Dissatisfaction among democratic senators which Wednesday prevented final action on the tariff bill, was dissipated under the influence of a heated caucus discussion, and Wednesday evening the caucus approved the bill as reported by the conference committee of the house and senate. But six democrats voted against approving the report.

The caucus decided to abandon its position on the proposition in the bill to tax dealings in cotton futures and to leave the entire subject for later legislative action. Both the amendment and the bill were approved by the caucus. The bill in the senate and the less drastic administration substitute presented by House Leader Underwood and adopted by the house will be thrown out by the senate democrats.

After the caucus Sen. Simmons said he was confident that the senate would complete its consideration of the tariff bill Thursday. He said a motion would be made first to agree to the conference report and that then he would move to disagree to the Underwood cotton tax amendment, and also to recede from the senate amendment. With the bill thus disposed of by the senate the house probably would agree to drop the cotton future tax provision for the present and send the tariff bill to the president.

Sen. Simmons expressed confidence that there would be no desertions from the democrats who voted for the bill on its original passage in the senate, when the measure appears Thursday. A resolution proposing to drop the cotton tax amendment was offered by Sen. Lewis of Illinois, but was withdrawn with the understanding that the binding nature of former tariff caucuses applied to the entire consideration of the tariff bill.

FLOOD HAS REACHED THE DANGEROUS STAGE

Boats Are Kept in Readiness to Meet Any Emergency at Lake Charles, La.

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 2.—Menaced on one side by danger from a further rise in the Calcasieu river, and on the other by an increased overflow from English bayou, Lake Charles Wednesday night is confronted with one of the most serious floods in its history. Backwater Wednesday night from the bayou was flowing into one of the principal residence districts at the rate of two inches an hour. Only the northern part of the city and a strip along the lake side six blocks wide remained entirely out of water. Boats have been distributed over the city ready for any emergency.

The tracks of the Southern Pacific, the only railroad operating trains into the city, were a foot under water tonight. Rescue parties were sent out from here today to remove to high ground many persons marooned in farm houses east of the city, where water has covered the land from four to ten feet deep. Much live stock has been drowned, crops have been a total loss in some instances and saw mill owners have lost thousands of dollars worth of logs that have floated out to the gulf.

ENTOMBED MAN NEAR LIBERTY

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 2.—Rescuers who have been working night and day to release Thomas Tozowski, a coal miner, who has been entombed in the Continental mine for over 144 hours, cheered the captive Thursday with the promise that he would probably be at liberty before night.

Hymns were sung through the pipe driven into Tozowski's prison to encourage him. The prisoner said he had plenty to eat, the food having been sent through the same pipe, but complained of a queer feeling in the head. He could not sleep, he said, and was cold from the constant drip of water.

A wall of less than 20 feet of rock stood between the rescuers and the prisoner, but as the miners got nearer to the chamber they struck soft shale and coal which made drilling easier.

MATCHES PUBLIC PROPERTY

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 2.—Matches are like umbrellas: they are public property, declared Judge Adams here when he discharged Walter Harris, charged with stealing a box of matches from a grocer.

Just one day to Register This year it's Oct. 6

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 2.—August Belmont's three-year-old Tracey, for which he was recently offered $200,000, was defeated here today by Cantiliver in the race for the Jockey Club's stakes for $50,000. Aleppo finished third.

MRS. SULZER TELLS OF DEALS IN WALL STREET

Wife of Governor Will Take the Stand to Show Why Her Husband Should be Kept at Head of New York State.

ASSEMBLY MANAGERS COMPLETE THEIR CASE

Court Will Meet Again When Defense Will Offer Motions. Expected to Ask for Further Adjournment.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 2.—The assembly board of managers Wednesday rested their case in the trial of the impeachment of Gov. William Sulzer. The high court then adjourned until Thursday afternoon when counsel for the governor will submit several preliminary motions for the court to decide before opening the case for the defense.

These disposed of, counsel will probably ask permission to take another adjournment before calling their first witness. This witness, it is expected, will be Louis A. Sarecky, the governor's campaign secretary, whom counsel for the impeachment managers failed to put on the stand, although he was under subpoena. Sarecky indorsed many of the checks given to Sulzer during his campaign which were not reported in his sworn statement of campaign contributions.

Both the governor and Mrs. Sulzer are expected to take the stand before the defense closes.

The governor will defend his failure to report the numerous contributions he received on the ground that they were personal gifts, it is believed.

May Tell Her Story.

Mrs. Sulzer, it is said, will defend his alleged speculative transactions in Wall st. with testimony to show that they were conducted for her account. She is expected to tell the story of the loan which she said to have contracted with the Carnegie Trust Co., and to seek to prove that for the sole purpose of paying the loan, the governor borrowed money from the stock exchange firm of Harris & Fuller on Wednesday night.

Whether the long missing Frederick L. Colwell, the governor's alleged agent in his Wall transactions, will also be called, was a subject of much speculation Wednesday night. His whereabouts have been known to the governor's attorneys but they have declined to produce him unless it was stipulated that he would not be placed under arrest for refusing to obey a subpoena of the Frawley investigating committee. This counsel for the impeachment managers said Wednesday night they were powerless to prevent.

Lieut. Commander L. M. Josephthal, who paid a debt of $26,752 contracted by the governor with Harris & Fuller, according to the testimony, is expected to be another witness. He was called by Albany Wednesday night from New York, where he arrived Wednesday from Europe. His testimony, it is understood, will be highly favorable to the governor.

Will Open the Case.

Atty. Harvey D. Hindman will make the address opening the governor's case. It will chiefly be because Mr. Hindman, who has conducted most of the cross examination, had become exhausted that Judge D. Cady Herlick of the counsel of the defense asked Wednesday that adjournment be taken until Monday. This request was denied by the court during an executive session.

The close of the case of assembly managers Wednesday marked the close of two weeks since the trial began and of six days consumed in taking testimony. Many witnesses under subpoena including William J. Connors of Buffalo and Hugh J. Reilly of New York, a railroad builder for the Cuban government, were not called. Both were subpoenaed to testify as to contributions they are supposed to have made to Gov. Sulzer. They may be placed on the stand in rebuttal.

The final shot of the managers was the testimony of John B. Gray, member of the brokerage firm of Fuller & Gray, which handled the "account No. 500" of Frederick L. Colwell. Gray testified that Colwell had told him this account was Gov. Sulzer's campaign fund upon a representation that it would bring him business. That one time Colwell said a bond he purchased was for a woman. The broker declared that he could not recall the name of the woman. Atty. Hindman for the managers expressed themselves Wednesday night as well pleased.

Not After Woman.

Now that the direct testimony is all in, Atty. Isidore J. Kresel said that no further effort would be made to locate the "mysterious woman" in the case. She is Miss Bessie Colwell, a relative of Frederick L. Colwell. The board of managers wanted her chiefly to testify regarding the whereabouts of Colwell, but they also intended to question her as to her knowledge of his stock deals for the governor.

"Counsel for the board is satisfied," said Kresel. "We feel that we have shown almost everything we proposed. Some ground which still is to be covered will be gone over on re-direct examination."

"Why did we not call Sarecky? he was a hostile witness to our side of the case. When he is called by the defense, if he ever is, we shall question him. We shall also interrogate Colwell at length if he is called."

DELICIOUS FAMILY WANTS GIRL TO DROP CHARGES

Young Millionaire Who is Accused of Attacking Bryn Mawr Student Appears in Court.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—When twenty-one-year-old Herman Oelrichs, second richest bachelor in America, was arraigned in Harlem police court Thursday, charged with stabbing Miss Singleton during a quarrel in an automobile, the case was continued until Oct. 7, because the complainant was too ill to appear. A physician's certificate was presented to the court saying that Miss Singleton must remain in bed for several days.

Through his attorney, Oelrichs issued a statement to the public denying the charge against him.

Mrs. Oelrichs, mother of the prisoner, and a sister of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., was not in court.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Representatives of the Oelrichs family made lively efforts Thursday to have Miss Lucile Singleton, a pretty 19-year-old Bryn Mawr student, drop the charge of felonious assault she had made against Herman Oelrichs, the second richest bachelor in America, and the boom companion of Cincinot Astor.

After much contradiction and some mystery, the original charge made by Miss Singleton that she had been stabbed during an automobile ride was sustained. Although doctors who attended her at the Knickerbocker hospital declared that the injuries were the result of an automobile accident, the girl's story convinced the police and Oelrichs was arrested in Miss Singleton's apartment. Later he was bailed out in the sum of $5,000 by his mother, a sister of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.

Consequently Oelrichs was at liberty pending his arraignment in Harlem police court. According to Miss Singleton, who is the daughter of a wealthy mine owner in Texas, Martin Taylor, a lawyer, offered her $400 if she would withdraw the charge against Oelrichs. But she held out for $5,000.

Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty said that Miss Singleton would be prevailed upon to press the charge against Oelrichs.

"Because this young man is a multimillionaire he should not be allowed to escape if he really stabbed the girl," said Mr. Dougherty.

The young woman said that she knew Oelrichs as "Billy Claghorn" and again she said she knew him as "Mr. Creighton."

Previously it had been said that she knew the real identity of her companion.

Couldn't Find Weapon.

The police were puzzled by the fact that they could not find the weapon with which the girl claimed to have been slashed, but this was cleared up when Miss Singleton said that, after stabbing her with a weapon, like a long needle, "her assailant passed the instrument to another man who was seated in the tonneau of the car."

Deputy Commissioner Dougherty said he knew the identity of this third person and could arrest him at any time. He was reported to be a Columbia university student.

It was said at the apartments of Miss Singleton that she was suffering severe pain, one would have required ten stitches. It was further declared that her condition was too serious for her to come into court. In this some connection a significant statement was made by Atty. Chas. H. Strong:

"I do not think the young woman will press her charge against Mr. Oelrichs," said Strong. "From what I have learned of the whole affair is the result of an after dinner party. As a matter of fact there was no stabbing."

Detective Theodore P. Trayer, who first investigated the automobile accident in which Oelrichs figured, immediately after the stabbing, has been suspended because he reported that the affair was without suspicious circumstances.

NO WELCOME IN ARDEN FOR SINCLAIR'S NEW WIFE

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 2.—Upton Sinclair, the author, and his second wife, who had that "welcome" mat is not meant for them if they attempt to settle down in Arden colony, a literary and artistic community, where Mr. Sinclair used to live when his first wife eloped with Harry Kemp, the tramp poet.

A sign "not wanted" has been placed upon the door of the Sinclair bungalow. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair arrived two days ago from Europe.

Gaby Desley is Behind Affair

German Newspapers Say Manuel's Escapades Caused His Bride to Leave Him.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—German newspapers are making bold comments on the marital woes of ex-King Manuel of Portugal, who was separated from his bride Princess Victoria of Hohenzollern, after three weeks of married life. The princess is still very ill in a private sanitarium at Munich.

The Vorwarts plainly declared Thursday that Manuel's affair with Gaby Desley, the Parisian music hall singer, was probably responsible. However, it goes on to say that Manuel's affairs with other women, chiefly actresses did not fit him for married life.

Goethals Nears Finish Of Big Job at Canal

Col. Geo. W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, who is about to turn the water into the big ditch.

GRANDDAUGHTERS SUE TO CONTEST WOOLMAN WILL

Allege Late Pioneer Was Unduly Influenced by Son and of Unsound Mind When Testament Was Executed.

Suit to contest the will of the late Granville Woolman, who died Jan. 3, leaving an estate of about $50,000, has been filed in the circuit court by Elizabeth G. Hillier and Mamie Vail, granddaughters of Woolman. Woolman was a pioneer of this section. The granddaughters, each of whom is the only daughter of Woolman's daughters now deceased, received $1,500 each in the will. In the complaint to set aside the instrument they charge undue influence by Edgar Woolman, a son, and that the elder Woolman was of unsound mind when the will and a codicil were executed. The will was executed March 13, 1906, and the codicil in July of the same year. It was presented and admitted to probate three days after Woolman's death. Jan. 5, before Judge Funk in the circuit court. Lyman Egbert qualified as executor.

Sons and Widow Defendants.

The defendants in the suits are the sons and widow of Woolman, Joseph Burr Woolman, Edgar E. Alan J. and Sarah Jane. Egbert is made a defendant as executor of the will.

Woolman provided that his widow should have two lots in the original plat of the town of New Canfield and $5,000. Edgar Woolman was to receive $700 before a distribution of the remainder of the $50,000 estate was made between himself and his brothers, except the $5,000 given to the two granddaughters. The latter claim that they are entitled to one-fifth of the estate, which would have been the share of their mothers, had they lived. Woolman's widow is his second wife and there are no children by the second marriage.

Funk's Enemy Under Arrest

Man Who Sued Rumely Head as Confessed Frame-up is Accused of Perjury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—John C. Henning, who sued Clarence S. Funk, former general manager of the International Harvester Co., for $50,000 for alleged alienation of Mrs. Henning's affections, was brought to Chicago Thursday from Minneapolis, where he was arrested after a hunt of more than a year. He waived extradition. The arrest of Henning was made on a warrant charging perjury. After Henning sued Funk, Mrs. Henning was found by private detectives and she confessed that the charges against Funk were a frame-up to discredit him because of testimony he gave against Sen. Lorimer of Illinois, who was unseated after a charge filed in the senate.

Funk is now head of the Rumely company at LaPorte.

MAN GOES FREE AFTER CONVICTION FOR MURDER

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 2.—Owen Terry, recently convicted of being an accessory to his father in the murder of Marshall Richardson of Cottage Grove, was released from jail Wednesday.

After his conviction Terry was granted a new trial and later the judge ordered the charges against him dismissed for lack of evidence.

NOT YET BUT SOON MEBBE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Reports that Pres. Wilson has devised a new plan for government ownership of the telegraph and telephone systems of the country were denied from an official source Thursday.

WAR DEPARTMENT TO KEEP TROOPS OUT OF MEXICO

Orders Are Issued That No Soldiers Are to be Sent Across the Border Without Orders From Capital.

REBEL STRONGHOLD NOT TO BE BURNED

Americans Are Assured That Property Will be Respected. Soldiers Are Guarding International Bridges.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Orders that no American troops be sent into Mexican territory at Piedras Negras without specific instructions from Washington went from the war department Wednesday to Brig. Gen. Bliss, commanding the United States border forces.

The instructions to Gen. Bliss would not operate to prevent American troops from returning any fire that may be directed upon them from the Mexican side, such as might be incident to the use of force to defend the bridges and keep them open. Several days ago Gen. Bliss was authorized at his own request to take care of any of the Mexicans wounded on either side that should come across the river. This authorization, it was said at the state department, was quite sufficient to warrant the general in standing under his own care the six carloads of wounded constitutionalists reported to have been sent across the Rio Grande Wednesday afternoon by the fleeing rebels.

Regarding the disposition of the large number of fugitives who are trying to cross the bridges at Eagle Pass, it was said at the war department that as many of them as bear arms, following the American military officers while the immigration inspectors and customs officers will deal with the civilian refugees.

To Protect Americans.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, Mexico, Oct. 2.—The city of Piedras Negras will not be destroyed and every protection will be afforded property owned by Americans and other foreigners during anticipated hostilities between the constitutionalists and federal army.

This assurance was given an American military authorities late Wednesday afternoon by a representative of Gen. Jesus Carranza, constitutionalist commander, following the American protests made by the state department through U. S. Consul Blocker.

It had been reported that with the evacuation of the city by the constitutionalists, dynamite had been made to dynamite the town to prevent anything of value falling into the hands of the federalists in case their advance was not checked by the momentarily expected reinforcements south of here.

Following this assurance, remaining residents of Piedras Negras with the assistance of the American authorities organized a local government and martial law now is partly American. Fifty men were employed to guard property on reports that organized bands had begun to sack abandoned residences and business places. Looters will be summarily executed.

The protests of the state department were presented by Consul Blocker and Maj. Caldwell of the Fourth U. S. Infantry, in command of the troops at Eagle Pass, at the conclusion of their conference with the constitutionalist authorities, the Americans were greeted with cries of "Jefe de Uros" (grape juice).

On the American side soldiers patrolled the entire river from the border to begin a filibustering expedition. Fear of such a contingency after the army left Piedras Negras was expressed Wednesday by the constitutionalist chiefs. At both ends of the international bridge strong guards were maintained.

Bridges Are Burned.

From the front Wednesday came word that every railroad bridge had been burned between this place and Pesoyles, where the constitutionalist army is gathered for its last march to the border. It is now impossible to reach Piedras Negras from the south by rail and it is believed this measure was taken to prevent further retreat by the rebel army.

Wednesday night hundreds of wagons were still lined up before the international bridge awaiting an opportunity to cross to the American side. Women and children slept inside, while the men kept watch outside, guarding their families and such of their personal possessions as they had been able to carry in their flight. Most of them are of the poorer Mexican rural classes.

Those familiar with the situation believe that the danger of a general conflagration is past and that almost normal conditions will prevail, unless irresponsible mobs should get control of the city. Discovery of several cases of smallpox Wednesday created intense excitement among the poorer classes, most of them in Piedras Negras. No trace of the disease was found among the wounded, most of whom were transferred to Eagle Pass Wednesday afternoon.

NEWCASTLE GIRL MAKES HIT IN GRAND OPERA

NEWCASTLE.—Mrs. Leila Smith Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Royer of this city, has made her debut in grand opera at the Metropolitan opera house, New York. She sang the prima donna roles in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Il Trovatore." She was given an enthusiastic reception.